

Next London concerts at Kings Place: 22 March and 15 November 2015

Following the exceptional success of the complete Beethoven Trios, the Rosamunde embarked in autumn 2014 on another exciting project entitled 'Mozart and the French School' and this will include all the Mozart Trios and the great works by all the French composers. In November 2014 the programme included the Debussy Trio and the magnificent Fauré Piano Quartet in C minor. On 22 March 2015 both Ravel's great Sonata for violin and cello and Lalo's wonderful A minor Trio will be performed. In later concerts major works by Chausson, Roussel, Saint-Saëns, Ravel and Messiaen will also be heard. Below are some of the venues where the Rosamunde Trio has had particular successes.
